

EVERYDAY CHOICES – Mary Ryan 14.5.12

Every day a chance to show our love to others

Every hour a gift to use or throw away

Every place a crossroads to decide our actions

Every time a choice within our day

Every mind is seeking for peace beyond our understanding

Every heart is searching to feel the warmth of love

Every soul is yearning for joy that's without measure

Every face reflecting a hope for good

Every life most precious, treasure sent from heaven

Everyone the image of our creator God

Everything alive with purpose for fulfilling

Every breath a sign that life is good.
