

A NEW BEGINNING – Mary Ryan 13.11.11

1) This is the start of a new beginning

A way you've never been before

The path will open up before you

His way is perfect and his steps are sure

2) You poured your life into the lives of others

To help the needy and inspire the young

Your willing heart brought miracles of healing

But now that phase has ended, a new has come

All pervading love, from the throne above

Poured out for the lost and helpless children

3) Although you did not get the recognition

For all the endless years of toil and pain

You faced the threat of their rejection

His will is best and without shame

4) So lift your heart, the future now is dawning

Fear not, be bold and strong to face the task

The past is over, put it all behind you

Love can lead you, let it lead you now

All pervading love, from the throne above

Poured out for the lost and helpless children
